RETRO MAXIMALISM

A breathtaking haven with large windows and panoramic views, where ETRO Home Interiors furnishings express their full potential.

Theatrical tones and bold choices craft a distinctive space: concrete walls and floors provide a neutral backdrop, while ETRO Home Interiors pieces infuse warmth and character with their maximalist style and retro accents.

Inviting sofas and armchairs, enriched by tactile fabrics in vibrant colors, form a vivid tableau, while the sculptural forms of the furniture interact with the architecture's lines in a captivating dialogue.

The result is a space that is an expression of a fluid lifestyle, constantly seeking beauty and discovery.

The Piping chair combines a retro aesthetic made of clean lines with the maximalism of the upholstery. Its structure of polished tubular elements creates a strong contrast with the seat, which can be upholstered in all the fabrics and leathers of the collection. A very versatile piece, that can be integrated into different environments.

Inspired by the elegance of the 1950s, the Fly Over dining table skillfully blends minimalist forms with authentic and expressive materials – in this case the signature Arnica coated fabric, that covers both the top and the legs of the table. A piece of furniture full of style and meaning, ready to become the undisputed protagonist of the dining room.

BENT modular bookcase

Striking and unique, the Bent modular bookcase exudes personality with its dynamic combination of shapes and finishes. Alternating between open and closed modules, it features a mix of materials to create a distinctive, rich and textured look. Perfect for lending character to any room, Bent can also be used as a room divider, making it a stylish addition to your home.

NEOCLASSIC armchair | PIPING low table | DOUBLE low table | DICE floor lamps | YELLOW HUES rug

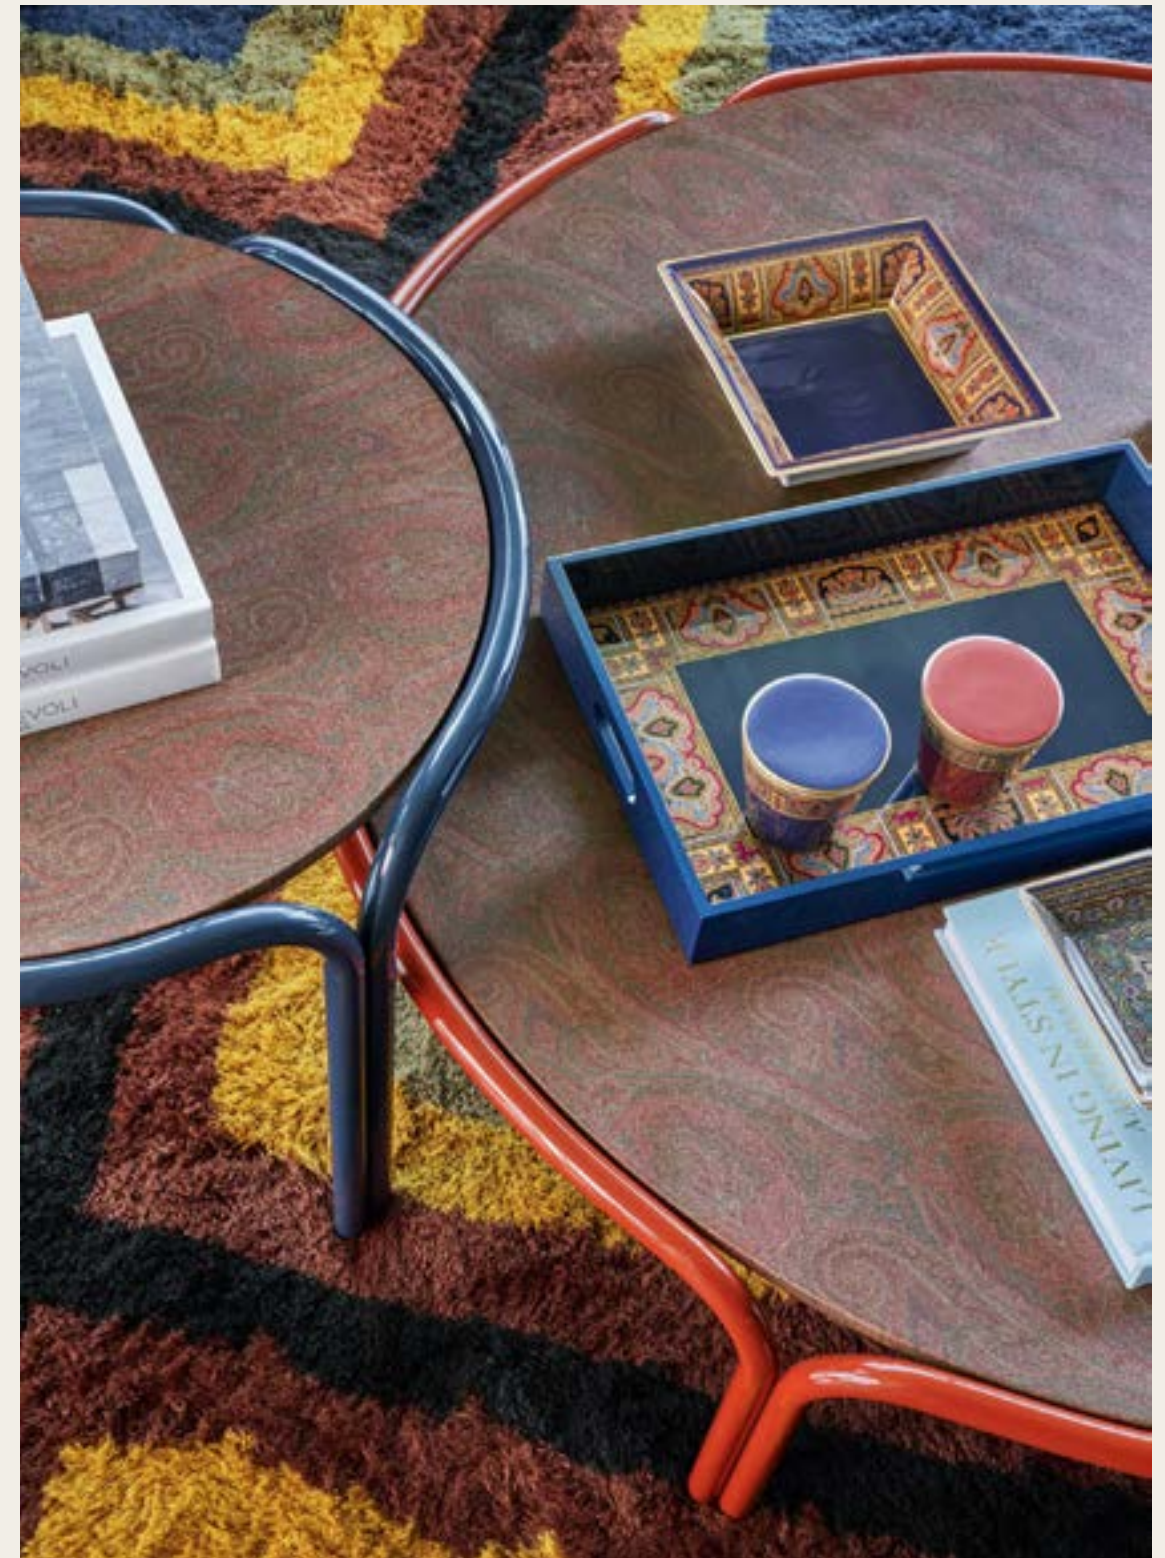

A new look for a classic seat with soft, enveloping shapes. Neoclassic brings the style of old armchairs and sofas up to date, creating contemporary furniture that retains a strong personality. The upholstery, available in the fabrics and colours of the collection, is the distinctive element that makes Neoclassic suitable for any environment.

The Piping low table is distinguished by a round shape enlivened by intense colours. Available in two dimensions, Piping showcases a curved tubular structure that creates a playful combination of full and empty parts. The top is covered with Etro's signature Arnica coated fabric, depicting the Tree of Life motif.

Fabric and colour: these two fundamental themes of the Maison are the main features of the Dahlia loveseat. With its soft and rounded shapes, upholstered in the collection's sumptuous fabrics, Dahlia can infuse any space with a sense of harmony and intimacy, embodying the idea of enveloping relaxation.
